BIG CROWD AT THE ORPHEUM TUESDAY EVENING.

Play House's Capacity Tested To the Limit.

There were nearly 1200 people at the Orpheum Theater last night to see the Mexican War pictures. It was the largest crowd ever seen in front of a local theater. It gave one the impression that Talbot's Hippodrome was located in our midst with persons seeking admission extending nearly a block long. The war picture put on by Messrs. Freeman and Shepherd were of high order and merited the success they received.

Mamie Flinn, Plaintiff

vs.
Guy Flinn, Defendant

You are hereby notified that the above named plaintiff has filed in this case on the 25th day of February A.D. 1914 with the undersigned Clerk of said Common Pleas Court of Cape Girardeau County Missouri in open court, his petition duly verified by affidavit wherein said plaintiff alleges that defendant is the lawful owner of an undivided one-third of the following described real estate in the city and county of Cape Girardeau in the State of Missouri, to-wit: Lots twenty three (23) and twenty-four (24) in range "G" in the said city of Cape Girardeau, in said County of Cape Girardeau, State of Missouri, which said two lots front one hundred and fifty feet (150) on Lorimer street with a depth of One hundred and eighty (180) feet. That said defendant, her husband, has without reasonable cause abandoned her, and for more than two years last past has utterly failed to provide for plaintiff a home, food and clothing, or with money to provide herself with same; that the object and purpose of said suit is to compel said defendant to provide plaintiff with the necessities of life, and needful maintenance.

It being shown by affidavit that said defendant is a non-resident of the State of Missouri and for two years last past so absent himself from his usual abode in the State of Missouri so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him in the State of Missouri and that defendant so conceals himself so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon said defendant. It is thereupon ordered by the undersigned Clerk aforesaid, in vacation that said defendant be notified that an action has been commenced against him in the Common Pleas Court of Cape Girardeau County in the State of Missouri to compel said defendant, Guy Flinn, to furnish maintenance and support for his wife, Mamie Flinn, and that he be compelled to pay twenty dollars per month for the support and maintenance of his said wife, the plaintiff herein, and that the court declare a lien on defendant's undivided one-third interest in the above described real estate. And that the said Court appoint a commissioner to rent or sell defendant's undivided one-third interest in said lots twenty-three (23) and twenty-four (24) in Range "G" in the city and county of Cape Girardeau in the State of Missouri. This action is returnable to and triable on the first day of the next regular term of this court to be holden at the court house in the city and county of Cape Girardeau in the State of Missouri on Monday the 25th day of May A. D. 1914 at which time and place defendant is required and commanded to be and appear and to plead, answer or demur to plaintiff's said petition, otherwise the allegations contained in said petition will be taken and considered as confessed and judgment rendered according to the prayer thereof, forever barring and precluding said defendant from hereinafter setting up any claim or title to said real property.

CAPE COUNTY CITIZEN COM- MITS SUICIDE

Joseph Kerr From Near New Wells Hangs Himself Sunday Morning

CORONER CALLED TO SCENE

Left Mentally Unbalanced From Spell of "Grippe"—Attempted to End Life Before

Joseph Kerr, an old and highly respected citizen of Shawnee Township, this county, whose home is about four miles East of New Wells, committed suicide Sunday morning at his home, by hanging himself. Mr. Kerr was about 70 years of age at the time of his death, and on several different occasions has attempted to end his own existence. He is a farmer by profession and has lived in the vicinity of where he died for many years. He leaves a wife and ten children to mourn his departure. It is thought that the unfortunate man became mentally unbalanced as a result of a severe spell of la grippe he endured during the past winter. Dr. E. R. Schoen, county coroner, was summoned to the scene of the misfortune, early Sunday morning. The body will be buried at New Wells on Monday afternoon.

HUERTA UNDECIDED

Wires that Nothing Is Positively "Determined" About Resignation.

New York, May 20. The Times this morning publishes the following: Mexico City, May 19.—Referring to your two telegrams of yesterday, I have the honor to inform you that nothing is positively determined. Respectfully

V. HUERTA.

Gen. Huerta's message is in reply to telegrams from The Times asking him if it was true, as asserted in Washington, that he had authorized the Mexican delegates to submit his resignation to the peace conference if that should be found necessary to a peaceful settlement, and whether, as asserted later, the terms of such resignation were:

"A loan of $400,000,000 by the United States to Mexico; the leasing of Magdalena Bay for ninety-nine years at $1,000,000 yearly; Carranza to be excluded from the presidency."

WHAT COULD YOU EXPECT OF TOWN NAMED OSHKOSH?

"What could you expect of a town named Oshkosh?" was the comment of Mrs. Carl Preetorius, formerly of St. Louis, on the edict of the City Council of Oshkosh, Wis., that she wear bifurcated garments reaching to the knee or cancel her engagement to appear before the Elks of the town in several classic dances last night.

After communicating its edict to Mrs. Preetorius the Council selected a committee of members of a leading woman's club to inspect the attire of the dancer before she went on the platform.

The dancer known on the stage as Orville Preetorius, was engaged for a benefit performance. The Council threatened to forbid the performance unless the dancer complied with its edict.

Mrs. Preetorius appeared in St. Louis in barefoot classic dances.—Ex.
